NOVEMBER... HAPPY THANKSGIVING

EVERYONE. May your holiday be Blessed and enjoyed with family and good foods, and filled with a heart of THANKSGIVING for all we have and life itself. Our country is very Blessed and founded on high morals and principals. This election is soon over and we will have to live with the choice of the people and our future destiny. We can clear our minds of the bombardment of political info and get the clutter out and get back on track with our thoughts and lives.

We need to keep others affected by Hurricane Matthew and other losses in our prayers. Those damages take much time to repair, some will not be able to be replaced, lost loved ones, as well as dealing with the trauma of the mind. Let us also remember our members who are battling disease and sickness and have lost loved ones.

WE will all be busy with the Holiday season with all the hustle and bustle. It is amazing how many extra preparations are required this time of year, and our minds are already buzzing with other projects and planning. With all the color and food and excitement of the coming holiday season that follows, we will all be very busy and excited. Many are working on gift projects for family and friends yet to be finished up, as well as decorating, shopping, arrangements, parties, and many other activities. Homemade ornaments and decorative painted items are always great gifts and selling items. You still have a little time to get some finished this month. Get out the cornucopia and arrange fruits and veggies for a great painting. Let us stash away money for the upcoming TEAM S. E. Regional. Maybe you can suggest to your family to give for your trip to St. Simons this year instead of other gifts.

TEAM S. E. REGIONAL "RENAISSANCE" CONFERENCE IN ST. SIMONS, GA. WE WILL BE MEETING THURSDAY MARCH 30- APRIL 2, 2017, as always with the

 There’s happiness in little things,
 There’s joy in passing pleasure.
